- (a) The Corporation will be a nonstock corporation organized and operated exclusively for educational purposes, and no part of its net earnings will inure to the benefit of any individual, and no trustee, (each a "Trustee" and together, the "Trustees") officer, (each an "Officer" and together, the "Officers") or employee of the Corporation will receive or be entitled to receive any pecuniary profit from the operations thereof, except reasonable compensation for services.
- (b) The Corporation will not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2).

Any assets not so disposed of will be disposed of by order of the Supreme Court of the State of New York in the judicial district where the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, organized and operated exclusively for such purposes, as said Court may determine.

ARTICLE IV TRUSTEES

SECTION 1. Powers and Duties. The activities and affairs of the Corporation will be managed by the Board. Subject to Section 236 of the Education Law of the State of New York (the “Education Law”), the Board will manage the business, property, provide for the operation of television stations and/or radio stations, make all decisions of policy, employ and appoint all necessary executives, agents and representatives to carry out the purposes of this Corporation, and will do all other things in the management of the business, property and affairs of the Corporation necessary to carry out its purposes.

SECTION 2. Number. The Board will consist of not less than five (5) nor more than fifty-five (55) persons, at least one of whom must be a resident of the state of New York. Determination of the number of Trustees will be made, from time to time, by and in the discretion of the Board at any meeting of the Board; provided, however, that the number of Trustees will not be decreased by the Board to a number less than the number of Trustees then in office. If the number of Trustees is at any time more than five (5), the Board, after notice of the proposed action in the call for a meeting, may, by a vote of two-thirds of all the members of the Board, decrease the number of Trustees to not less than five (5) by abolishing the office of any Trustee which is vacant and filing in the office of the Regents a certified copy of the action. If the number of Trustees is at any time less than fifty-five (55), the Board may, by a vote of two-thirds of all the members of the Board, increase the number of Trustees to not more than fifty-five (55).

SECTION 3. Election, Term of Office, and Classification.

(a) Trustees, except as provided in Section 6 of this Article IV, will be elected by majority vote of the Board at the annual meeting of the Board, as set forth in Section 7 of this Article IV (the “Annual Meeting of the Board”). The term of office of each Trustee will be three (3) years, expiring at the Annual Meeting of the Board in the year in which such Trustee will have served his or her three (3) year term, or, if later, until his or her successor has been elected and qualified or, if earlier, until such Trustee’s death, resignation or removal. Trustees will stand for election after each three-year term and may serve up to four (4) consecutive terms; provided, however, that any Trustee then serving as chairman of the Board (the “Chairman”) or vice chairman of the Board (each a “Vice-Chairman” and together, the “Vice-Chairmen”) will be exempt from term limits while serving in such positions. In order that a rotating system of election may prevail, the Board will be classified into three (3) approximately equal classes of Trustees (each a “Class” and together, the “Classes”), each labeled “Class of ____” by the year that such Class was elected, according to the following procedures:

- (i) The Board is authorized to determine, by majority vote, the composition of each Class, or authorize a committee of the Board (each a “Committee” and together, the “Committees”), the president of the Corporation (the “President”) or the secretary of the Corporation (the “Secretary”) to determine the composition of each Class.
- (ii) The term of each Class will be staggered such that only one Class is subject to reelection in any given year.

(b) Any vacancy created by the departure of any Trustee initially nominated by the Long Island Educational TV Council, Inc. (“LIETV”) board of trustees (the “LIETV Board”) and previously elected and classified as one of the eight (8) Class B Trustees of the Board (the “LIETV Board Designees”)

(or any successor to a LIETV Board Designee nominated by the LIETV Board or the WLIW Committee) will be filled by the Board in accordance with its normal nominating processes and procedures, provided that only the LIETV Board or the WLIW Committee will have the right to nominate a person or persons as a successor thereby preserving the number of LIETV Board Designees on the Board at eight (8) Trustees. However, if the total number of Trustees (including vacancies) of the Board will be set at a number either above or below fifty-five (assuming that Section 2 of this Article IV has been amended to so permit, if necessary) then the total number of LIETV Board Designees will be set at the number equal to 8/55s of the number of authorized Trustees (pursuant to Section 2 of this Article IV) rounded to the nearest whole number. If Section 2 of this Article IV is so amended, the LIETV Board Designees will be entitled to nominate one or more candidates to the Board or designate by majority vote one or more fellow LIETV Board Designees for resignation from the Board.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that LIETV ceases to exist, having dissolved pursuant to the New York Not-for-Profit Corporation Law (the "NPCL") or having been deemed to have dissolved pursuant to Section 5.5 of Article V of the Amended and Restated Asset Acquisition and Operating Agreement between Educational Broadcasting Corporation ("EBC") and LIETV, dated January 31, 2003 (the "LIETV Agreement"), all rights and benefits conferred on the LIETV Board by these By-Laws will automatically be assigned to the LIETV Board Designees on the Board, who will act by majority vote, and will be entitled to exercise such rights and enjoy such benefits to the same extent as LIETV under these By-Laws.

SECTION 4. Removal or Suspension. The Board, by vote of a majority of the entire number of Trustees, as designated in Section 2 of this Article IV, may remove or suspend from office any Trustee on examination and due proof of the truth of a written complaint by any Trustee of misconduct, incapacity or neglect of duty; provided, however, that at least one week's previous notice of the proposed action will have been given to the accused Trustee and to each of the other Trustees. The Regents, after a hearing before the Regents or a committee thereof, may remove any Trustee for misconduct, incapacity, neglect of duty or where it appears to the satisfaction of the Regents that the Corporation has failed or refuses to carry into effect its educational purposes. At least ten (10) days notice of the time and place of such hearing will be given to the Trustees.

SECTION 5. Resignation, Actual and Deemed. Any Trustee may resign at any time, orally or in writing, by notifying the President or the Secretary. Any such resignation will take effect at the time therein specified, and, unless otherwise specified, the acceptance of such resignation will not be necessary to make it effective. If any Trustee fails to attend three (3) consecutive meetings of the Board without excuse accepted as satisfactory by the Board, the Board is authorized to deem such Trustee to have resigned and to fill the vacancy as provided in Section 6 of this Article IV.

SECTION 6. Vacancies and Increase. Subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 3(b) of this Article IV, the Board may fill any vacancy occurring in the office of any Trustee by electing by majority vote of the Board, at any meeting of the Board, another Trustee for the unexpired term; provided, however, that the Board will confirm any Trustee so elected at the Annual Meeting of the Board. The office of any Trustee will become vacant on his or her death, resignation, refusal to act, removal from office, or as a result of any other cause which may be specified in the Charter as the same may be amended. Any Trustee elected to fill a vacancy in one of the two Classes not subject to reelection in that year will be elected for the same term of office as the other Trustees of that Class and will be permitted to serve four (4) additional terms after serving his or her initial partial term. Any increase in the number of Trustees will, to the extent of such increase, be deemed to create one or more vacancies to be filled as provided in this Section 6. Any vacancy in the office of Trustees continuing for more than one (1) year, or any vacancy reducing the number of Trustees in office to less than two-thirds of the full number designated pursuant to Section 2 of this Article IV, may be filled by the Regents. If the Regents, as provided in Section 4 of this Article IV, should remove any Trustee from office, the Regents may fill the vacancy so created by appointing a successor to the Trustee so removed.

SECTION 7. Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting of the Board will be held at 4:00 p.m. on the third Tuesday in May in each year (or, if such date is a legal holiday, on the next succeeding business day at the same time), or at such other time as may be determined by the Board or the President and designated in the notice of the meeting. At each Annual Meeting of the Board or adjournment thereof, the Board will be entitled to elect Trustees and may transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The first meeting of the newly-elected Board, if held immediately after election of such Board and if a quorum be present, will be deemed to be a continuation of the Annual Meeting of the Board.

SECTION 8. Regular Meetings. The Board will hold regular meetings at such time and place and at such intervals as the Board will fix from time to time. If the day fixed for such a regular meeting is a legal holiday, such meeting will be held on the next succeeding business day.

SECTION 9. Special Meetings. The Chairman, the President or Secretary may call, and by written request signed by any two Trustees must call, special meetings of the Board.

SECTION 10. Place of Meetings. Any and all meetings of the Board will be held at the office of the Corporation or at such other place, within or without the State of New York, as may be designated in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

SECTION 11. Notice of Meetings. Notice of the time and place of every meeting of the Board will be mailed not less than five (5) nor more than twenty-one (21) days before such meeting, to the usual address of every Trustee. Alternatively, notice may be given by telephone or sent by facsimile transmission, courier service, electronic mail or hand delivery not less than five (5) nor more than twenty-one (21) days before such meeting. Any business may be transacted by the Board at a meeting at which every member of the Board is present, though held without notice.

SECTION 12. Waiver of Notice. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 11 of this Article IV, any meeting of the Board and any action otherwise properly taken thereat will be valid if notice of the time, place and purposes of such meeting has been waived in writing before, at, or after such meeting by all of the Trustees.

SECTION 13. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law, by the Charter or these by-laws (the "By-Laws"), if the number of Trustees designated pursuant to Section 2 of this Article IV is more than fifteen (15), then the presence in person of at least five (5) Trustees plus one additional Trustee for every ten (10) Trustees (or fraction thereof) in excess of fifteen will be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum. If the number of Trustees designated pursuant to Section 2 of this Article IV is fifteen (15) or less, the presence in person of one-third of such number of Trustees will be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum. In the absence of a quorum, a smaller number may adjourn any meeting to a later date. If notice is given by telephone, facsimile transmission, electronic mail, or hand delivery, at least one (1) day's notice of such adjourned date must be given to each Trustee who is not present at such meeting. If by mail or courier service, at least two (2) days notice must be given to each Trustee who is not present at such meeting. For the avoidance of doubt, the following chart sets forth the number of Trustees that are required for a quorum:

Total Number of Trustees	Number of Trustees Required for a Quorum
13-15	5
16-25	6
26-35	7
36-45	8
46-55	9

SECTION 14. Action by Majority Vote.

(a) The act of a majority of the Trustees present at a meeting at which a quorum is present will be necessary and sufficient to take any action except as otherwise provided for in (b) of this Section 14 or as otherwise expressly required by law, by the Regents, or by the Charter as the same may be amended or by these By-Laws as the same may be amended.

(b) Any action may be taken by the Trustees without a meeting if all Trustees entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof consent in writing (including via electronic transmission) to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action. The resolution and the written consents thereto by the Trustees will be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board.

SECTION 15. Compensation. The Trustees will serve without salary or other remuneration for their service as Trustees. Trustees may be reimbursed for expenses actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with attendance at meetings and with the performance of other authorized duties in connection with the business and affairs of the Corporation, provided that such expenses have been approved by the Corporation's treasurer (the "Treasurer"), or by the Board. No employee of the Corporation, should he be a Trustee, will vote on a question relating to his own salary or emoluments.

SECTION 16. Telephonic Participation. Trustees may participate in any meeting of the Board, or any meeting of a Committee established pursuant to Article V, by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment allowing all persons to hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means will constitute presence in person at a meeting.

SECTION 17. Life Trustee. The nominating committee of the Corporation (the "Nominating Committee") may recommend to the Chairman, for designation as a Life Trustee, a retiring Trustee who has demonstrated outstanding service, ability, and commitment to the Corporation and/or its affiliated entities. Appointment to the title of Life Trustee will be subject to the following considerations: 1) service on the Board or one of its affiliated entities for at least seven years; 2) attendance at a high percentage of Board meetings; 3) active participation on at least one working Committee annually; 4) generous financial support within the Trustee's means; and 5) unusual contributions of a non-financial nature which might outweigh other considerations. Life Trustees may not vote at Board or Committee meetings nor will their presence or absence affect the determination of a quorum, except where the Board of Trustees has passed a resolution electing a Life Trustee to serve as a voting member of a specific Committee. Life Trustees will be entitled to expense reimbursement in accordance with Section 15 of this Article IV. Life Trustees will be otherwise entitled to the same privileges afforded to Trustees. Any Life Trustee may be removed with or without cause by resolution passed by the Board at any meeting of the Board. After serving as a Life Trustee for one (1) year, the Nominating Committee may nominate a Life Trustee as a candidate for election to the Board, and upon re-election to the Board, the individual will be a Trustee and not a Life Trustee, with full rights and privileges afforded to Trustees under these By-Laws and prescribed by law.

SECTION 18. Officers Emeriti. The Nominating Committee may recommend to the Chairman, for designation as an Officer Emeritus, a retiring Chairman or Vice-Chairman who has demonstrated outstanding service, ability, and commitment to the Corporation and/or its affiliated entities. Officers Emeriti may not vote at Board or Committee meetings nor will their presence or absence affect the determination of a quorum. Officers Emeriti will be entitled to expense reimbursement in accordance with Section 15 of this Article IV. Officers Emeriti will be otherwise entitled to the same privileges afforded to Trustees. Any Officer Emeriti may be removed with or without cause by resolution passed by the Board at any meeting of the Board.

SECTION 19. Conflicts Policy. The following contracts or transactions must be disclosed in good faith or known to the Board or Committee authorizing a contract or other transaction:

(a) contracts or transactions between the Corporation and one or more of its Trustees or Officers, or one or more other disqualified persons within the meaning of Code Section 4958, and the regulations promulgated thereunder (hereinafter "Code Section 4958"), which will include the family members and 35% controlled entities of any disqualified person; and

(b) contracts or transactions between the Corporation and any other corporation, firm, association, or other entity in which one or more of the Trustees or Officers of the Corporation are directors, trustees or officers or have a substantial financial interest, affiliation, or other significant relationship.

The interested individual may participate in the information-gathering stage of the Board's, or Committee's discussion, but will retire from the room in which the Board or a Committee thereof is meeting and will not participate in the final deliberation or decision regarding such contract or other transaction. Such interested individual may not vote on such contract or other transaction. Common or interested Trustees may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at the meeting of the Board or of a Committee which authorizes such contracts. In the event that a question as to whether a conflict of interest exists is brought before the Board or one of its Committees for resolution, the interested individual may not vote on the question. In determining whether to approve such contract or transaction, disinterested Trustees will take into account the restrictions regarding excess benefit transactions under Code Section 4958, and Section 715 of the N-PCL, as modified by Section 216-a of the New York Educational Law.

The minutes of the meeting of the Board or Committee thereof will reflect (a) that the conflict of interest was disclosed, (b) that the interested Trustee or Officer was not present during the final discussion or vote of the Board or Committee thereof, and (c) that the interested individual abstained from voting.

A disclosure statement will be furnished annually to the Board by each Trustee, Life Trustee, Officer Emeritus and Officer. The disclosure statements will be reviewed annually by the Board or by a Committee thereof. In addition, each Trustee and officer must report promptly to the Corporation any potential conflict of interest as and when it arises.

(a) Selection, Removal and Vacancies. The executive committee of the Board (the “Executive Committee”) will be a standing committee of the Board. All members of the Executive Committee must be Trustees, and the Executive Committee will consist of not less than ten (10) members. Members of the Executive Committee will consist of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman or Vice-Chairmen of the Board, plus the chair of each of the other Committees of the Board and any other Trustees elected by a majority of the entire Board at any meeting of the Board and will serve until the next Annual Meeting of the Board and until such member’s successor is duly elected and qualified, or until such member’s earlier death, resignation or removal. The Chairman of the Board will serve as the chair of the Executive Committee. Any member of the Executive Committee may be removed with or without cause by resolution passed by the Board at any meeting of the Board.

(b) The persons serving as chairman and the first-vice chairman of the WLIW Committee (as set forth in Section 3 of this Article V and in the WLIW Committee charter) will serve on the Executive Committee at least through January 31, 2013.

(c) Operations. Except as hereafter provided in this Section 1 and subject to limitations prescribed by law, the Executive Committee may transact, in intervals between meetings of the Board, any business of the Corporation. Any action taken by the Executive Committee will be subject to rescission or change by the Board, provided, however, that no such rescission or change will invalidate any acts of any Officers or other persons taken prior to such rescission or change pursuant to such action of the Executive Committee. A majority of the Executive Committee will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and any action taken by a majority of the members of the Executive Committee present at a meeting, at which a quorum is present, will constitute the act of the Executive Committee. Such authority may include authorizing the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to any paper which may require it. The Executive Committee will not have and may not exercise the power to grant degrees (if such power has been conferred on the Board), the power to elect members of the Executive Committee, the power to fill vacancies in the Board or in the Executive Committee or the power to make removals from office. The following provisions in Article IV relating to the operation of the Board are also applicable to the Executive Committee: Section 5; Section 6; Section 15; and Section 16. The Executive Committee will: (1) meet as least once annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate; (2) keep a record of its actions; and (3) make a report, either in writing or orally, at each meeting of the Board to the extent that it conducted any activities since the last meeting of the Board; provided, however, that it will report to the Board at least once annually. Subject to the limitations contained in these By-Laws, the Executive Committee may make rules of the calling, holding and conducting of its meetings and the keeping of the records thereof, provided that reasonable notice of all meetings of the Executive Committee will be given to its members thereof unless such notice is waived in the manner prescribed by Section 12 of Article IV.

SECTION 2. Additional Standing Committees.

(a) Selection, Removal, Vacancies. The Board may from time to time authorize the creation of additional standing committees' of the Board (each a "Standing Committee" and together the "Standing Committees") including, but not limited to: the Audit Committee; the Finance Committee; the Investment Committee; the Nominating Committee; and the Personnel and Diversity Committee, as defined in each Standing Committee's charter. All members of each Standing Committee must be Trustees. In accordance with applicable law and these By-Laws, the members of each Standing Committee will be elected by a majority of the entire Board at any meeting of the Board, and will serve until the next Annual Meeting of the Board and until such member's successor is duly elected and qualified, or until such member's earlier death, resignation or removal. Each Standing Committee will have at least three members. Any member of a Standing Committee may be removed, with or without cause, by a resolution passed by the Board at any meeting of the Board. The Chairman will appoint a chair of each Standing Committee at the Annual Meeting of the Board who will serve until the next Annual Meeting of the Board, until the chair's successor is duly appointed and qualified, or until the chair's earlier death, resignation or removal. The Chairman may delegate the appointment of the chair to the members of each Standing Committee, who will elect a chair by majority vote of the full committee membership.

(b) Operations. Each Standing Committee will be delegated the authority to act as the full Board when exercising the powers and authority granted to a Standing Committee by the Board and as set forth in each Standing Committee's charter, subject to the limitations prescribed by law. Any action taken by each Standing Committee will be subject to rescission or change by the Board, provided, however, that no such rescission or change will invalidate any acts of any Officers or other persons taken prior to such rescission or change pursuant to such action of each Standing Committee. A majority of the members of each Standing Committee will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and any action taken by a majority of the members of each Standing Committee present at a meeting, at which a quorum is present, will constitute the act of each Standing Committee. The following provisions in Article IV relating to the operation of the Board are also applicable to each Standing Committee: Section 5; Section 6; Section 15; and Section 16. Each Standing Committee will: (1) meet at least once annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate; (2) keep a record of its actions; and (3) make a report, either in writing or orally, at each meeting of the Board to the extent that it conducted any activities since the last meeting of the Board; provided, however, that it will report to the Board at least once annually. Subject to the limitations contained in these By-Laws, each Standing Committee may make rules of the calling, holding and conducting of its meetings and the keeping of the records thereof, provided that reasonable notice of all meetings of each Standing Committee will be given to its members thereof unless such notice is waived in the manner prescribed by Section 12 of Article IV.

SECTION 3. Committees of the Corporation.

(a) Selection, Removal, Vacancies. The Board may from time to time authorize the creation of committees of the Corporation (each a "Committee of the Corporation" and together, the "Committees of the Corporation") whose members will be elected or appointed by majority vote of the Board at the Annual Meeting of the Board (or at any regular or special meeting of the Board to fill any vacancies) and will serve until the next Annual Meeting of the Board and until such member's successor is duly appointed or elected and qualified, or until such member's earlier death, resignation or removal. Members of each Committee of the Corporation need not be Trustees. Any member may be removed, with or without cause, by a resolution passed by the Board at any meeting of the Board. The Chairman shall appoint a chair of each Committee of the Corporation at the Annual Meeting of the Board (or any meeting to fill a vacancy.) The Chairman may delegate the appointment of the Chair to the members of each Committee of the Corporation, who will elect a chair by majority vote of the full committee membership. The chair of each Committee of the Corporation will serve until the next Annual Meeting of the Board. Committees of the Corporation will include, but are not limited to: the Education Committee; the Development Committee; the Program Committee; and the WLIW Committee. The WLIW Committee shall remain in existence at least through January 31, 2013.

(b) Operations. Each Committee of the Corporation will have the power to recommend action to the Board as set forth in their individual charters, but will not have the power to take any corporate action. A majority of the members of each Committee of the Corporation will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and any action taken by a majority of the members of each Committee of the Corporation present at a meeting, at which a quorum is present, will constitute the act of each Committee of the Corporation, but such action will never have a binding effect on the Board. The following provisions in Article IV relating to the operation of the Board are also applicable to each Committee of the Corporation: Section 5; Section 6; Section 15; and Section 16. Each Committee of the Corporation will: (1) meet as least once annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate; (2) keep a record of its actions; and (3) make a report, either in writing or orally, at each meeting of the Board to the extent that it conducted any activities since the last meeting of the Board; provided, however, that it will report to the Board at least once annually. Subject to the limitations contained in these By-Laws, each Committee of the Corporation may make rules of the calling, holding and conducting of its meetings and the keeping of the records thereof, provided that reasonable notice of all meetings of each Committee of the Corporation will be given to its members thereof unless such notice is waived in the manner prescribed by Section 12 of Article IV.

SECTION 4. Special Committees.

(a) Selection, Removal, Vacancies. The Board may from time to time authorize the creation of special committees (each a "Special Committee" and together, the "Special Committees"), and may determine the names of such Special Committees, the term of existence of each Special Committee, and, to the extent permitted by law and by these By-Laws, may delegate specific powers and duties of the Board to such Special Committees. There is no minimum required number of members for each Special Committee, but all members of each Special Committee must be Trustees. The Chairman may appoint the members of such Special Committees or may authorize the President and/or any other Officer or Officers to select the members of any such Special Committee. The Chairman will appoint a chair of each Special Committee who will serve until the Special Committee has fulfilled its purpose. The Chairman may delegate the appointment of the chair to the members of each Special Committee, who will elect a chair by majority vote of the full committee membership.

(b) Operations. Special Committees will only have those powers specifically delegated to each by the Board and are intended to be committees with limited existence. A majority of the membership of each Special Committee will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and any action taken by a majority of the members of each Special Committee present at a meeting, at which a quorum is present, will constitute the act of each Special Committee. The following provisions in Article IV relating to the operation of the Board are also applicable to each Special Committee: Section 5; Section 6; Section 15; and Section 16. Any action taken by each Special Committee will be subject to rescission or change by the Board, provided, however, that no such rescission or change will invalidate any acts of any Officers or other persons taken prior to such rescission or change pursuant to such action of each Special Committee. Each Special Committee will, for so long as it exists: (1) meet as least once annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate; (2) keep a record of its actions; and (3) make a report, either in writing or orally, at each meeting of the Board to the extent that it conducted any activities since the last meeting of the Board; provided, however, that it will report to the Board at least once annually. Subject to the limitations contained in these By-Laws, each Special Committee may make rules of the calling, holding and conducting of its meetings and the keeping of the records thereof, provided that reasonable notice of all meetings of each Special Committee will be given to its members thereof unless such notice is waived in the manner prescribed by Section 12 of Article IV.

Officers other than the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Board need not be Trustees. Officers will be elected by majority vote of the Board at the Annual Meeting of the Board. The Board may elect such other additional Officers, with such duties and authority, as it sees fit. Any two of the foregoing Offices, except those of President and Vice-President, or President and Secretary, may be held by the same person.

SECTION 2. Term. The term of office of each Officer (including any Officer who may occupy an additional office created by the Board), other than the Chairman and any Vice-Chairmen, will be one (1) year and until his successor is elected and qualifies.
